Lawrence Democrat.

FOR COVERNOR

JNO P. BUCHANAN

Of RETHERFORD.

It having come to pass that the colored voters of the south can no longer be tooled by Republi cans with the "forty-acres-and-a mule racket, or intimidated with the silly lie that the democratic party is best on their reenslavement, the party of high moral ideas, and all that ort o thing, finds itself threatened with disaster and overthrow. Driven to desperation by this distressful ovtlook, it catches at the revolutionary idea of seizing the polls in the Southern States and compelling the m to yield Republican majorities! This is a once the history and the inter pretation of the infamous Day enport-Lidge bill now pending in the United States Senate.

Uncle Jere Rusk should issue a circular congratulating th farmers of the United States on the shortness of their crops. It these crops could be made short enough every year to come down to the home market demand it would be a great thing for agriculture. [Louisville Courier JOURNAL a home demand for our producholds his sides laughing at the his crops right in two in the midule because it increases home demand and gives him a better party is a party of ideas, but as Davy Crockett said "dam such idaas."

Our democratic Germans will march up to the pelles to day and vote the county democratic ticket strnight as usual. This element keeps Lawrence in the out of democracy, yet not one was placed on the county ticket How much longer will our Grman triends rake the chestnuts out of the fire for their American brethren of the democratic per suasion?"

THE above we clip from the Lawrence Union of Aug. 7. It is certainly as costemptible an appeal as we have ever seen in any paper. The impression is sought to be made that the Germans in this county are ignored by the democratic party simply because they are Germans. Everybody in this county knows that such is not the case beside the good sense of this Congresthat the German is a democrat trom principle and not that he may by being a democrat get an office. The German is a democrat because he knows the democratic party is his genuine friend and has always been. The Germio and especially the Catholic German will always be a democrat as long as one of the war cries or the Benuillean party is "Down with rum, Romanism and rebellion". The Union had forgotten that probably. The Germans of our county have too much good sense to let such an appeal have any veight with

Cot. N. N. Cox For C. NGRESS. Col. N. N. Cox, of Frankli-Williamson county, sent his aunoncement 1 st week to late hr the Pioneer to say anything in egard to him as a candidate tr Congress. The people of Hickman county, so far as we learn, say "Cox is the man." Why should they not say this? for it was among the hills and valleys of old Hickman bespent be joyous years of childhood; nere it was he married and commenced the study of his profession; it was here he was admitted to the bar: here he fought the bartle of Democracy, beginning in 1860, as Presidential elector in this Congressional District for Breckenridge, against the great Whig orator, Neil S. Brown. The bar of Tennessee, has long since recognized him as being one of the ablest lawyers in the State; the Democratic party has for years sought and secured his gratuitous labors in its behalf. and no man in the district has more ably derended the principles of democracy. His speech here a tew weeks ago was but in keeping with his able record. It was a relief to isten to such an exposition of the aims and purposes of his party. His presentation of the paper in Tenn. true policy for relief from the burdens of a tariff that is and has been so outrageously high as to amount to a legal plundering of the masses to enrich the few,

That is the logic of the Re- as well as his clear and convincpublican party. Verily the republican before the alliance was thought of) places him in the foremost rank, of our ablest public men. His ability is beyond question. His unwavering advocacy of the rights of the people, and his pary fealty, through success and defeat, leave but one course for democracy to pursue As a matter of right, as a matter of justice and fair dealing, we as democrats have received the benefits of his long and continued service, and as a debt of gratitude and appreciation for his services; we ought to honor him with a seat in Congress, We believe he would prove one of the most watchful, capable and energetic representatives in Congress, and
